

R-Me

Small group is offered for children 7-12 years who are able to produce the 'r' sound in words, but are having difficulty carrying it over in conversation.

Group meets one time per week for one hour with a speech-language pathologist for every 4 children. Maximum group size is eight.

Ten group sessions throughout the summer program.

Parents are able to observe and are offered suggestions for home carryover.

Columbus Speech & Hearing Center
510 E. North Broadway
Columbus, OH 43214

For more information, call 614.263.5151