

Helpful Websites and Internet Resources

We Improve Communication for Life

www.columbusspeech.org

www.asha.org American Speech-Language-Hearing Association www.autismspeaks.org An organization dedicated to Autism awareness, advocacy and research.

www.apraxia-kids.org A wealth of information on Childhood Apraxia of Speech.

www.hanen.org Provides parents, caregivers, early childhood educators and professionals with the knowledge and training to help young children develop the best possible language, social and literacy skills.

www.mommyspeechtherapy.com Tips and techniques for helping children be the best communicators they can be.

www.pinterest.com/columbusspeech Ideas for activities to help with everything from fine motor skills to articulation.

www.playingwithwords365.com Wonderful blog written by a speech-language pathologists with parent tips and strategies for speech and language development.

www.readingrockets.org A wealth of information about literacy and reading skills.

www.spdfoundation.net Research, education, and awareness for Sensory Processing Disorder.

www.stutteringhelp.org The Stuttering Foundation provides information for the prevention of stuttering and the most effective treatment available.

www.starfall.com Free public service with interactive games to teach children to read with phonics.

www.signingtime.com A video series to teach baby sign language and higher level signs.

www.speechsnacks.com A unique website that focuses on preparing simple and healthy foods with the participation of children while promoting good speech and language development.

www.speechtherapy101.com Tips for parents on how to best foster speech-language development at home.

www.ColumbusSpeech.org

510 E. North Broadway • Columbus, OH • 43214

P: 614.263.5151 • VP: 614.429.1382

